

Tim O'Shea Keynote Program Description

“Why People Think In Funny Ways”

Get past the thinking habits which stop you from succeeding!

Why do people think in funny ways? Why do we sometimes have weird reactions to things? Why do we make snap judgments about someone before getting to know them? Why do we instantly assume the worst while wanting the best?

This, and many other questions, are answered in this entertaining program about why we think in funny ways and how to avoid the pitfalls our thinking habits can sometimes land us in.

With an entertaining style and good-natured humor, Tim O'Shea provides key insights into how to reframe your thinking habits so you can make smarter decisions, handle conflict, cope with change, and produce more successful outcomes. In this program you will learn:

- Why we sometimes think in foolish ways
- Why we make assumptions and how to avoid them
- A practical process for managing thoughts and emotions which are counterproductive to our success
- And having a sense of humor helps!
